

IVth International Monteverdi Festival 14-17th July 2011. Vác – Budapest In honour of Claudio Monteverdi and Ferenc Liszt

The international festival organised by the Budapest Monteverdi Choir aims at bringing the vocal music of these two geniuses to a festive place in the Hungarian and European choral life. Participating ensembles will also represent the most beautiful pieces of their own vocal treasury.

Programme of the Festival

- 14th July Thursday 7 p.m. VÁC - OPENING CONCERT - Fehérek Temploma
Budapest Monteverdi Choir - Éva Kollár
Váci Vox Humana Choir - Judit Hartyányi and Bence Sándor
- 15 July Friday 28 p.m. VÁC - GUEST CHOIR'S CONCERT - Fehérek Temploma
Cor de Cambra Amalthea - Valencia-Espagne - David Gálvez Pintado
Coro Haliaetum - Izola - Slovenia - Giuliano Goruppi
Pro Musica Camber Choir - Sepsiszentgyörgy - Romania - Zoltán Sipos
- 16th July Saturday 8 p.m. BUDAPEST - FESTIVAL CONCERT - Avilai Szent Teréz Church
All participant choirs
- 17th July Sunday 5 p.m. VÁC - CLOSING CONCERT „Gratitude for Inhabitans of VÁC”
On the streets and squares of Vác - All participant choirs
- 15th July Friday 9 -12 a.m. VÁC - Atelier for the common pieces
a) Monteverdi's pieces on the concert programme - b) Ferenc Liszt's motets Atelier leaders:
 Éva Kollár, artistic director of the Festival, president of KÓTA
 Judit Hartyányi, president of the Artistic Council of KÓTA
Common pieces:
Cl. Monteverdi Cantate Domino, Dixit Dominus - Ps. 110
Liszt Ferenc Ave maris stella, Pater noster - from Christus oratorio
 Tu es Petrus - from Christus oratorio
 Patrons of the Festival
 Prof. Erzsébet Szőnyi - composer with Kossuth award
 Dr. Attila Fördös - Mayor of City VÁC
 Dr. Miklós Beer - Bishop - Vác's Diocese
Dr. Zoltán Horváth - Parish-Priest of Avilai Szent Teréz Church

Admission to the concerts is free. Welcome to our Festival!